33rd AIU North Zone Inter-University
Youth Festival 2017-18

Hosted by:

Maharishi Markandeshwar
(Deemed to be University)
Mullana, Ambala, Haryana

INTRODUCTION

Maharishi Markandeshwar (Deemed to be University) Mullana, Ambala, Haryana was bestowed the opportunity to Host the 33rd North Zone Inter-University Youth Festival 2017-18.

The name of the festival was kept as “Yuva MMaha Utsav”, depicting the congregation of youth from across North India assembling in of the biggest celebration of talent. The date of the festival was kept as 12th – 16th January 2018.

About the University

Seeing is believing, when it comes to measuring the leap the University has taken in providing quality education and training to the young generation. Beginning with an Engineering College initially set up at Ambala in 1995 but later shifted to its present campus at Mullana, the University acquired its present status by continuously adding innovative courses. Maharishi Markandeshwar (Deemed to be University) now is a prestigious institute located in Mullana, Ambala, Haryana, India. The institution is accredited with an “A” Grade by the National Assessment & Accreditation Council (NAAC), Govt. of India and has also been awarded overall QS 5stars rating for Teaching, Employability, Facilities and Social Responsibility

About AIU

The Association of Indian universities (AIU) is a registered society under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 with membership of Indian Universities. It provides a forum for administrators and academicians of member universities to exchange views and discuss matters of common concern. It acts as a bureau of information exchange in higher education. The present membership of the Association is 527 including seven Associate Members. The universities help to maintain and develop expenditure, including research studies, workshops, training programmes for university administrators and orientation programmes. The AIU is also empowered to grant Associate Membership to universities of the neighbouring countries of India.

About Mullana, Ambala

Mullana is a village in Ambala district in the state of Haryana, India, located on the border with the state of Punjab and in proximity of the state capital Chandigarh. This countryside is larger than a hamlet and smaller than a town or city. The lush green fields of Mullana spread around the university give a distinct eco-friendly identity to the university.

Ambala District is famous for Scientific Instruments, Cloth Market and Ambala Cantonment. Ambala Cantt is Ambala's headquarter. It is a major junction. Delhi-Kalka & Saharanpur-Ludhiana's railway lines passes through here. G.T. Road also passes through Ambala Cantt. This Cantt was established in the year 1843. Ambala Cantt is an important centre for manufacturing of scientific & surgical instruments. It lies on the national highway 1 and is an opening to Himachal Pradesh.

The primary organizing committee consisted of the following:
