PSO for M.Sc. Statistics CBCS LOCF Programme
On successful completion of the programme a student will be able to

1. Apply analytical and practical skills learned in the course work
2. Provide hands- on training of Statistical Softwares and computer skills to handle and analyze large database by making optimum usage of time and resources in industries.
3. Engage the students in life-long learning by pursuing higher education and participation in research and development activities to meet all challenges to transform them as responsible citizens of the nation.